| still had souls. // But even the souls | of men can be tainted. // Along with Chris | t, murderers and thieves were crucified. A p | particular Pure Blood named Maripev was | | | | | |
| found killing a human and was sent | enced to crucifixion. He swore against the | ne cross and cursed all vampires from that | day forth to have no lingering soul. He | | | | | |
| was not shown compassion so the | world would know none in return. When | Maripev spoke those words, I made my ov | wn silent vow that I would never make | | | | | |
| another vampire. // The sun descer | ded that night with Maripev still swearin | g against God and the cross. As the morni | ng sun rose, his cries turned to screams | | | | | |
| as the sun burned him to ashes. // | From then on, vampires became the vulr | nerable creatures bound to the night, soulle | ess and forever hunting for the pleasure | | | | | |
| of the kill. Crosses, holy water | r, and all ancient symbols of God | and those times became a vampire | s's undoing. | | | | | |
